But the Lord answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, but one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her.” Luke 10:41–42

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“He was running around like a chicken without it’s head.” Have you ever felt that way? We often use this phrase to describe people that are very busy. This certainly describes Martha as she is busy running around getting everything ready as a hostess for Jesus’ visit. She is so busy that she complains that her sister is not helping her and is instead listening at Jesus’ feet. Jesus replies that Martha has lost sight of the best portion during her running around.

How often are we that busy, to the point that we lose sight of the good portion? There are many things that fight for our attention in the world. Our families, our hobbies, our careers, our likes and dislikes, our friends, there are countless things that we need to juggle and prioritize on a daily basis. Yet, there are only twenty-four hours in a day. We cannot do everything. We make sacrifices and sometimes our sinful nature gets in the way to the point that we sacrifice our time with our Lord and Savior. We give into temptations such as, “You do not have enough time to do your devotions at the moment, you can do them later.” “It is only one hour for worship but you were out late last night, just go next week.” Soon, we find ourselves missing more and more devotional and worship time to the point that our time with God is very short or non-existent. We run around, forgetting that our true goal and rest is found in the Lord. As St. Augustine wrote, “Our hearts are restless until they find their rest in Thee.”

Tis why I am glad that our Lord gives us this reminder to focus upon the good portion, His teachings and what He has done for us through His death and Resurrection. In Him, we find the peace in the midst of our busy lives. Through His perfect life, lived in our place, through His death and resurrection, Christ gives us the peace that our sins are forgiven, even all of the times that we have forgotten Him or gave into the temptation to misuse our time. He has given us life in Him which will never be taken away. May we always focus on the good portion in the midst of our busy lives.

Your Servant in Christ,

Rev. Joshua Reinke
